FUMC Youth Conduct and Responsibilities

During my time with First United Methodist Church, I will strive for the best possible time and I sign this document as an acceptance of the following responsibilities:

1. I will drink plenty of water and strive to eat properly. (Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner)
2. I agree to be attentive and alert and I will look out for others and myself during the event.
3. I agree to participate in all group activities. I will ensure that I am on time for every event, meeting and pulse check.
4. I will stay in a group of three (minimal) at all times. I will not leave the event or lodging location without permission of the Youth Minister.
5. I will respect everyone's personal property by not tampering with it or taking it. I understand that I am personally responsible for any damage done to any property.
6. I will do my part to sustain a clean environment at the end of the event, I will help to clean all vehicles used for transportation.
7. At all times, I will display a Christ-like attitude toward my peers, hosts, leaders, chaperones, and the other customers at hotels and restaurants.
8. I understand that Public Display of Affection is not allowed. I will strive to make everyone feel included in every aspect of the trip or event.
9. I will not make any changes to my personal appearance, while on any youth trip or event. This includes haircuts, hair coloring, tattoos, and any sort of body piercing.
10. I will refrain from using profanity, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, and non-prescription drugs. The possession of firearms, knives, and fireworks are prohibited.
